

About us

Alpha Real Estates is an independent dynamic sales, Lettings and Property management firm based in West Ealing and Shepherds Bush. We take great pride in being independent, free from the constraints of corporate structures that other agents are beholden to. It is this independence that gives us greater flexibility in our approach to marketing. We cover a wide area as we are in the Heart of West London and our well placed branches allow us to represent varied regions from Central London to Hayes.

We are dedicated to providing a quality service for all our clients as our people are fundamental to our business and our reputation. Throughout the tenancy we look after both the landlord and tenant. We highly believe in Customer Service and place a strong emphasis on it, which is why our customers keep coming back.

We offer professional and efficient sales & lettings advice and pride ourselves on delivering a quality service to our clients in addition to achieving the best possible prices. Rest assured that your property is being dealt with by professional people who really care about you and your property.

Our Success results from hard work, an honest and straight talking approach and our unrivalled experience and knowledge. Although our results speak for themselves we are never complacent and always strive to improve on our achievements.

It's all about the client and everything we do is done with the sole aim of making the sale or rental of your most valued asset as stress free, profitable and satisfactory for you as possible. We are passionate in developing best practice in absolutely everything we do. We look forward to working with you.
